OUR FIRM

Kahner Global specializes in curating high-level investor conferences, webinars, and private events. The company was founded in 2015 as the very first conference series exclusively for family offices in the cannabis industry. Since then, Kahner Global has incorporated Psychedelics into all their conferences leading to the official launch of The Cannabis & Psychedelics Investment Summit Series. The summits have evolved as the premier summit series for institutional investors, family offices and ultra high-net-worth investors. The symposiums provide a highly tailored, unique and intimate conference experience that brings an optimal deal flow to our audience of investors and entrepreneurs.

We are the longest running Cannabis & Psychedelics Investment Conference

Kahner Global has produced events annually in Florida, Beverly Hills, Toronto, New York City, London and San Francisco.

The summits connect some of the most innovative minds in the blossoming world of cannabis & psychedelics with a meticulously vetted community of high-net-worth investors and family offices.
